

PCOP Session Covenant
March 29, 2011

Our elders collectively created this covenant on the evening of March 29th for the purpose of being be pro-active spiritual leaders, guiding our congregation in a healthy process of transition as our pastor leaves to take a new call in another church.

I will commit to presenting a positive and spiritual attitude to all phases of the transition process and support it with prayer.

Nancy Barkman

I commit to maintaining a positive attitude, to urge others to be positive and to see and grab the opportunities that will become part of our life.

Bruce Churchill

I will stress in conversations that this is a healthy time of transition.

Bev Auer

I want to lift up God's goodness and presence and desire that we all strive to listen to God's call in our lives and to strive to faithfully follow.

Kathy Ekeberg

I will commit to be open to all feelings expressed and to be open to hearing them.

Judy Watt

I commit to seeing the process through to conclusion, growing as we go along together.

Howard Huneke

I will celebrate Judy's time with us and wish her strength for the next call. I will support the Presbyterian way of transition and help others as they navigate their way.

Sheila Schneider

I commit to being positive.

Steve Berg

I will commit to seeing opportunities for growth and celebration of the gains made in the past 7 ¾ years.

Charles Johns

I will commit to continue to lift this church, Judy, and the congregation in prayer and to encourage everyone's faith that we will remain "healthy" through the transition.

Kelly Gordon

I will commit to being positive by looking toward the future with anticipation and helping to insure we continue to have a wonderful facility within which we gather as a family and focus our worship.

Bill Heine

I will commit to reinforcing that we are a Family in Christ and during times of change we must all work together to continue to Celebrate, Grow, and Extend this ministry.

George Craig

I commit to being positive and praying faithfully that our church will continue to be a Christ centered church - that the transition will go smoothly and we will continue to live our Vision Statement.

Jan Anderson